DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: mistyping in Page 8, line 2, enclosure reference number 36, must be 38.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claim 17 recites the limitation "said apparatus" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 2, 3, 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rife et al.

Rife discloses a heat sink assembly comprising: a heat sink 120, a bracket 130 for mounting the heat sink 120 to a component 118 located on a circuit board 112, the bracket 130 cooperates with the heat sink 120 allowing said heat sink to be set in an installation orientation of a plurality of orientations relative to said bracket prior to mounting the heat sink against the component; the heat sink 120 further comprises a pedestal 140 and the bracket further defines an opening (space between flanges 128), the pedestal 140 cooperate with the opening allowing the heat sink to be set in the installation orientation; the bracket is mountable about said component to said circuit board; the pedestal and the bracket to retain said heat sink within said opening when said bracket is mounted to the circuit board; the heat sink assembly further comprising a retaining ring 150 cooperable with the pedestal 140 and the bracket 126 to retain said heat sink within the opening when said bracket is mounted to the circuit board.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 5, 6 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rife et al. in view of Smith et al.

Rife discloses the claimed invention except the housing enclosing the heat sink. Smith discloses the rotatable housing enclosing the heat sink having at least one open end. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to use the housing as disclosed by Smith in the structure disclosed by Rife et al. for efficient cooling.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 7-16 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not show a bracket as claimed having a bevel for directing airflow towards the heat sink.
